DYSLEXIA TASK FORCE TO MEET MONDAY

(FRANKFORT, Ky.) – The Dyslexia Task Force will meet Monday, December 5, from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. ET in the 1st Floor Training Center, Room A at the Kentucky Department of Education's new location, 300 Sower Blvd. in Frankfort.

The Dyslexia Task Force will study dyslexia and develop recommendations on policy, personnel, and the instructional and fiscal resources needed to identify and support students with dyslexia. The group's work will include reviewing the most current national data and research on dyslexia; reviewing current policies and practices being implemented across Kentucky and other states for screening, identifying and instructing students with dyslexia; and examining and analyzing state level intervention data and current practices for students with dyslexia.

The task force is comprised of individuals who have experience and expertise in this area, including education stakeholders from schools, local districts, postsecondary institutions, education cooperatives and advocacy groups.

A full agenda follows:
